The Guidance Office, now called "Counseling and Career Information Center," stands ready to serve students and their parents in making decisions regarding schooling after graduation or planning a successful entry into the world of work.

Some of the memorable functions of the department have been the successful College Nights and Financial Aid Nights that are held yearly and are looked forward to with great anticipation by both students and parents.

LANGUAGE

Chelsea High's Foreign Language Department offers courses in Spanish, Italian, and Latin. Latin has become increasingly popular in the last few years, and German will be reintroduced in the near future.

Foreign language study is an enriching and rewarding experience that enables the student to learn to speak another language and understand and appreciate other cultures. A walk through the language corridor fills your ears with SALVE, HOLA, HASTA LUEGO, BUON GIORNO, and CIAO.

BILINGUAL

The Bilingual Program is in its fifth year of operation at Chelsea High School. Presently staffed by four full-time teachers and one career-/guidance counselor, the program provides services for approximately one hundred and ten students.

Like all Title VII (Bilingual) Programs, Chelsea's is designed to meet three objectives. First, English as a Second Language classes help Spanish speaking students develop their English skills. Secondly, they may take Social Studies, Math and Science courses in their native language, Spanish. This enables the bilingual students to continue developing their skills and knowledge in the different subject areas. Thirdly, the Bilingual Program fosters an understanding and appreciation of both the students' Latin American culture and history as well as the important historical and cultural aspects of the United States.

The function of the Math Department is to prepare and to provide the students with necessary mathematical skills and knowledge. These skills and knowledge will be helpful and should prove to be essential in the students' futures. We hope the students will be able to apply their math knowledge one way or another during their lifetimes to improve this ever changing world.

The English Department at Chelsea High is trying to do what similar departments all over the country are attempting - we want to send our students off into the world at the end of their senior year with an ability to communicate well, to listen with understanding, and to read with appreciation. The class of 1980 will be a measure of our success, for to the extent that they succeed, we have succeeded; if they fail, that is to a degree our failure too. The skills that we have given them, properly used, will be building blocks to further understanding. Let us hope they use those building blocks well.

TITLE I READING

Richard Henry

Reading Skills is a part of Chelsea's federally funded Title I Reading Program. Students in Reading Skills are tested on their reading abilities, and any weaknesses that are discovered are improved upon through an individualized instructional program. Each student works independently on his or her own level, using a variety of materials.

OCCUPATIONAL EDUCATION

The Occupational Education Department at Chelsea High School prepares students for careers in electricity, electronics, power mechanics, graphic arts, technical illustration, woodworking and health.

Grade nine is a crucial year in the decision-making process involved in career choice. The exploratory program in Occupational Education offered in grade nine introduces students to all occupational education areas. The students are exposed to each subject and select a particular subject to pursue from grades ten-twelve. Once they decide on a direction, they have made a tentative career choice. Upon graduation, the students will have entry level skills for jobs or may continue their education.

SCIENCE

The department of science attempts to evoke interest in the students to study as many branches as possible. In today's world of ever-increasing discoveries of scientific knowledge, an uneducated citizenry can be catastrophic to our country. During the last 6 or 7 years we have more than doubled all our knowledge since the dawn of history up to the mid-seventies. Because of this and other considerations we have established modern laboratories to teach earth science, biology, chemistry, and physics as well as subdivisions of these main areas. We have added semester courses to our regular full year courses to help our students seek out areas they like. After all, success breeds success. If we can inculcate proper attitudes to learn in our students, we will be able to influence their ability to learn.

The social studies department at Chelsea High feels it has a special place in the total development of the CHS student. Not only does it attempt to instill in students a sense of history, an inquisitiveness for information and a mastery of subject matter, but most importantly it challenges students to think about the responsibility one owes to one's self, one's family, and this nation as they stride towards adulthood.

ORGANIZATIONS

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Louise Casey, Secretary; Robert Mugford, Vice-President; Laurice Whyel, Treasurer; Mr. Steriti, Advisor; Jacqueline Robinson, President

A great class has great leaders. The class of 1980 was very fortunate to have as its advisor Mr. Peter Steriti. He, along with the class officers, worked diligently to make our years at Chelsea High School both happy and rewarding. For that, we thank them.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is a very important part of Chelsea High School. It is not only the students' government, but it is also responsible for organizing many social activities that make high school a little bit more interesting. For example, this year's Student Council ran such activities as the Homecoming Dance, The 50's Dance, Pep Rallies, and Holiday parties.

The Student Council gets the students involved with their city, and with helping people all over. It is a worthwhile experience for active students who want to take the time to help others and to make their school years at Chelsea High School as enjoyable as they can possibly be.

THE BEACON STAFF

A group of dedicated individuals who labored long and hard. Hopefully, they had some fun. Maybe they even learned a few things. Without them this book would not have been possible.

This year the National Honor Society at Chelsea High School was very active. Besides maintaining standards of academic excellence, service, leadership and character, its members were involved in many varied activities. Soon after a lovely installation of officers and induction of new members buffet dinner, the Annual Christmas Secret Santa and Toy Drive began. They were both great successes. The society also sponsored three 3-D movies, a cake sale and its annual Blood Drive in conjunction with the Massachusetts General Hospital. The members undertook worthwhile projects and, at the same time, had fun.

A new coach was at the helm of the 1980 football team. Coach Bob Fee led the team to a moderately successful season in terms of wins and losses. More importantly, however, through his class and personality, he gave C.H.S. another team of spirited, hustling, motivated athletes.

CROSS COUNTRY

The 1979 Cross Country Team worked hard in what could be called "A Building Year." Chelsea, for the first time ever, fielded both a boy's and a girl's team in G.B.L. competition.

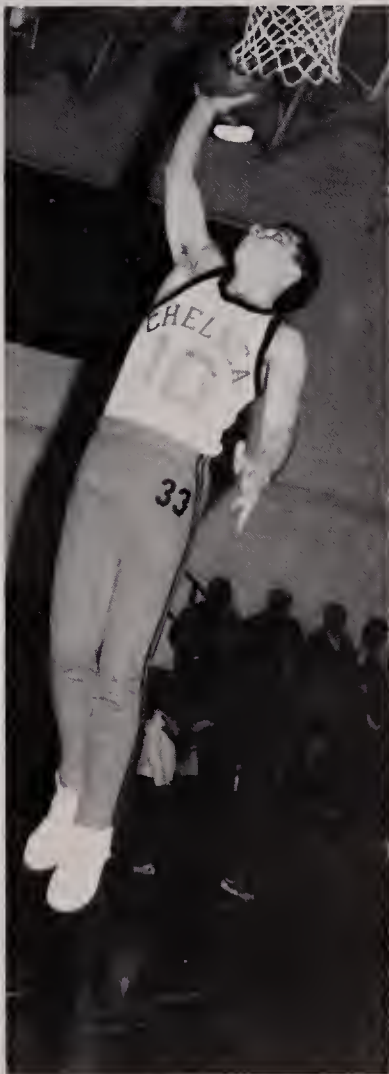

The season was a success not in terms of wins and losses, but in terms of spirit, togetherness, pride, and sportsmanship.

Captained by Drenda Carroll and Bill Kjersgard, both teams can be proud of their accomplishments.

Success is not always determined in terms of wins and losses. Success is often measured in intangibles. A case in point was this year's hockey team. The success of their season did not come from the number of victories but from the spirit, hustle, pride, and dogged perseverance displayed by the players.

With the blossoming of the buds comes the booming of the bats and the pounding of the leather. It's the baseball season. Hoping to blossom like buds of spring, this year's Red Devil Nine never quite attained full fruition. Although often overmatched, they never lost their desire and hustle and game after game played with the pride we have come to expect from Chelsea athletes.

Senior dress up day has been one of the more creative days for Chelsea High Seniors. The senior class parades around the school in costumes varying from an Easy-Wider Pack to a simple bumblebee. It was difficult to choose the winners, since everyone looked so good. The winners were Lisa Carter, dressed as Wonder Woman, and Rico Venturelli, dressed as Frankenstein, the walking horror.

Education has for its object the formation of character.

Herbert Spencer

Let early education be a sort of early amusement; you will then be better able to find out the natural bent.

Plato

Perhaps the most valuable result of all education is the ability to make yourself do the thing you have to do, when it ought to be done, whether you like it or not; it is the first lesson that ought to be learned; and however early a man's training begins, it is probably the last lesson that he learns thoroughly.
